

Ozan AVCI, MArch.

After graduated from I.T.U. Faculty of Architecture Department of Architecture with the 3rd degree in 2005, he had started his Master's in Architectural Design Programme at I.T.U. Institute of Science and Technology. In the same year, he has started to work as a research and teaching assistant at I.T.U. Faculty of Architecture Department of Architecture. During his MSci, he had been to BTU-Cottbus as an Erasmus Exchange Programme student for one year in Germany. In 2008, he was enrolled in Architectural Design Phd Programme at I.T.U. Institute of Science and Technology. He was awarded in various competitions both in student and professional categories. He has organized and participated in numerous national and international workshops. His research interests are body-space-time relations, the relations between architecture and other disciplines - especially fashion design - design process, theories of perception, sensation and bodily experience and representation. He is still working as a research and teaching assistant at I.T.U. and a visiting researcher as a Fulbrighter at University of Pennsylvania (U-Penn) School of Design for 2013-14 academic year in U.S.A.